1. Keep the auto team. YES

2. Add text in bold and remove suspension from 11.1, page 7 of rulebook. YES

11. A violation of any of the IR, suspension, or other rules will be resolved using one of the following methods, starting at the top and working down, stopping at the first resolution that does not, itself, violate an IR/suspension rule.

11.1. If an IR violation, the IR will be reinstated into the starting roster retroactively and that player's points will be used instead of the replacement player's points.

11.2. If 3 weeks are possible, the 3-week suspension rule will be used.

11.3. A backup player's points will be used (first to last).

11.4. A developmental player's points will be used, namely:

a) The previous week's top scorer.

b) If a tie, the first name after an alphabetical sorting of the Developmental Squad.

3. Add to Transaction Charges section, page 5 of rulebook, after number 13. YES

A transaction is charged when switching an IR replacement player, except if replacement player is traded or moved up from developmental.

4. Hire an assistant coach. YES

1) Pick an Offensive or Defensive Coordinator.

2) Pick a coordinator on a team that finished in the bottom half in yardage rank (16-32) the previous year.

3) Draft the coach in Spring Draft.

4) Reward and Penalty:

3rd round draft pick in college draft = Top 4 in yardage rank (Green Zone)

-1 on development = Bottom 4 in yardage rank (Red Zone)

5) If assistant coach becomes NFL head coach, you may hire him as your head coach.

6) Replace assistant coach when he is no longer a coordinator or a coach on the same NFL team.

7) You may replace the assistant coach after 4 years.

8) A head coach that is also a coordinator may be hired if not a HC on a BBFL teams.
